

SLEF

S v e n s k
Läkemedelsepidemiologisk
F ö r e n i n g

Pharmacoepidemiology yesterday, today and tomorrow: The Swedish experience and future

– a scientific seminar to celebrate the 20th anniversary of
The Swedish Society for Pharmacoepidemiology - SLEF

Time: Wednesday October 19th, 14.00-18.00 followed by dinner

Venue: Nobel Forum, Karolinska Institutet, Stockholm

Registration: www.pharmacoepi.se

Fee (including membership fee in SLEF): Seminar and dinner, 950 SEK
Seminar only, 450 SEK Last day for registration: 30th of September 2011,

PROGRAM

Historic review (yesterday and today):

Ulf Bergman, Karolinska Institutet/Karolinska University Hospital: SLEF 20 years

Barbro Westerholm, Swedish Parliament: Pharmacoepidemiology in Sweden in retrospect

Mikael Hoffman, NEPI: Pharmacoepidemiology in Sweden today

The road ahead (today and tomorrow):

Thomas Lönngren, NDA: Increased need for pharmacoepidemiology:
A new environment for drug development

Coffee break

Christina Åkerman, Läkemedelsverket: Increased need for pharmacoepidemiology:
The payer perspective. National Drug strategy

Susana Perez-Gutthann, RTI Health Solutions: Methodological challenges to meet the new demands on pharmacoepidemiology and opportunities for research

Anders Ekblom, Karolinska Institutet: Opportunities and challenges in Sweden to meet an increased demand of pharmacoepidemiology

Panel discussion (all speakers)

Chairman:

Björn Wettermark, chair SLEF & Helle Kieler, CPE